ORDER

On March 5, 2024, the Court Ordered Plaintiffs Amazon.com, Inc; Amazon.com Services LLC; and Amazon Technologies Inc. to file a notice on the docket showing cause as to why their claims against Defendants should not be dismissed for failure to prosecute. [Doc. 20]. On March 12, 2024, Plaintiffs filed a response to that Order, by which they represent that “Plaintiffs and Defendants signed a settlement agreement on March 11, 2024” and “respectfully request the Court provide the parties ten calendar days, until March 22, 2024, to file agreed-upon orders and a joint motion for dismissal.” [Doc. 21 ¶¶ 3–4].

Accordingly, the Court DIRECTS the Parties to, on or before March 22, 2024, either (1) file a stipulation of dismissal pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure

41(a)(1)(A)(ii) or (2) jointly file a notice with the Court regarding the status of this case.¹ Because Plaintiffs have advised the Court that they are in the process of consummating a settlement with Defendants, the Court DIRECTS the Clerk to ADMINISTRATIVELY CLOSE this case.² The Court DIRECTS the Clerk to resubmit this matter to the undersigned on March 25, 2024.

SO ORDERED, this 13th day of March, 2024.

Eleanor L. Ross
United States District Judge
Northern District of Georgia

¹ Alternatively, Plaintiffs may file a notice of dismissal pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a)(1)(A)(i).

² The Court notes that administrative closure will not prejudice the rights of any Party to this litigation. A Party need only file a motion to reopen the case if it so chooses.
